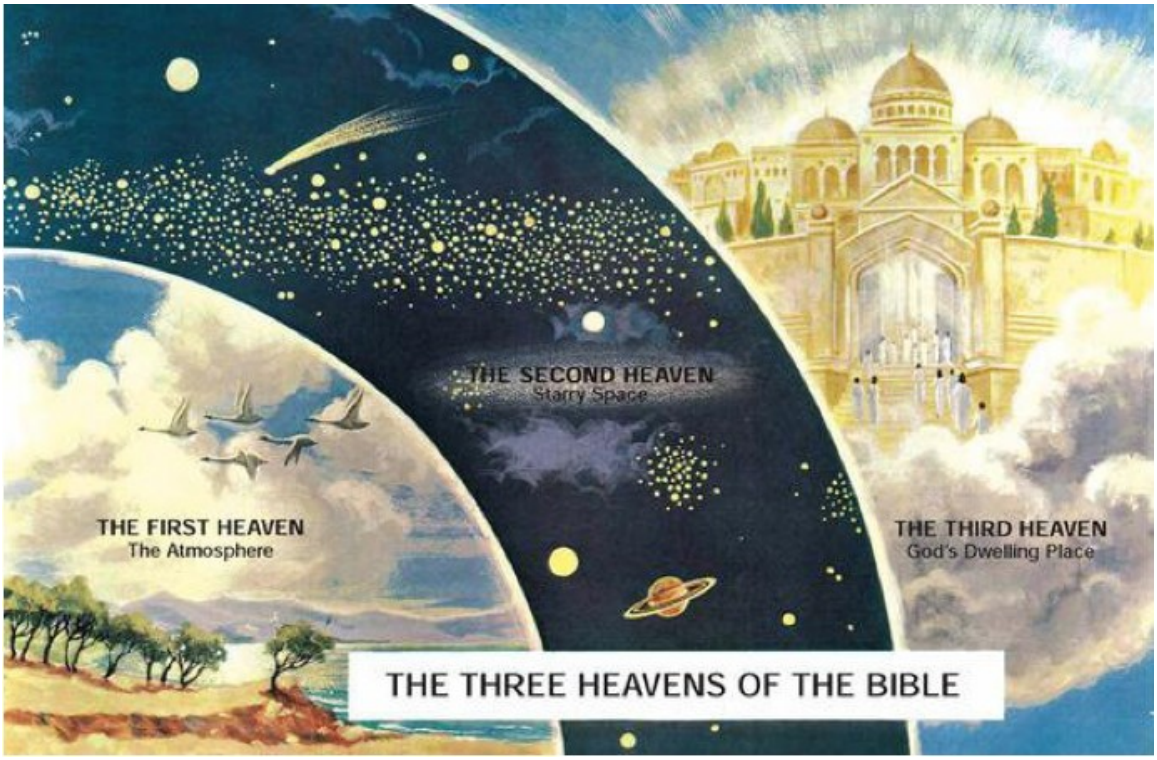
EARTH IS SURROUNDED BY DARK MATTER

HISTORICALL DARK MATTER SEEM TO BE WHERE ALIENS (FALLEN WATCHERS) TRAVEL FROM TO VISIT THE EARTH

The intersection of modern theoretical physics and ancient scriptural prophecy is a major focus for researchers who try to locate the exact spiritual dimensions described in the Bible. In alternative eschatology, the scientific concept of dark matter and dark energy is viewed as the physical, mathematical proof of the unseen spirit realms, serving as the hidden dimension where the Fallen Watchers operate and move through space.

This chapter breaks down the logical and scientific parallels between cosmic dark dimensions and prophetic texts.



DARK MATTER SEEMS TO BE WHERE ALIENS CALL HOME

According to modern astrophysics researchers the visible universe, including every star, planet, galaxy, and light wave we can see—only accounts for roughly 5 percent of what is out there. The remaining 95 percent is made up of two mysterious components known as Dark Matter and Dark Energy that cannot be seen, touched, or measured by standard instruments:

SURROUNDED BY AN INVISIBLE SHIELDING IS

Dark Matter: This is a region of invisible matter that does not reflect, absorb, or emit light. Scientists only know it exists because of its immense gravitational pull that holds entire galaxies inside it together. Without the pull of this unseen fabric that surrounds it, the visible stars would instantly control their own fate. _

Dark Energy: This is a hidden, underlying force that acts is different, it acts in the opposite manner by driving the rapid expansion of the universe. _

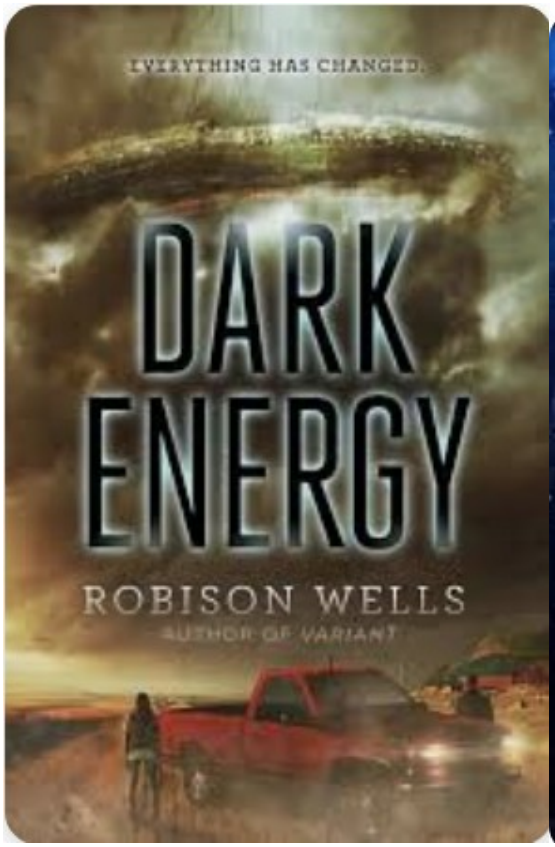
Because science defines these components as a massive, invisible reality that exists right around and alongside our own physical sky alternative researchers argue that astrophysics have simply given a secular name to what the Bible calls the spirit realm or the heavenly places.

II. The Dark Dimensions as the Domain of the Fallen Watchers

When scripture discusses the structural layout of the cosmos, it explicitly describes layers of unseen dimensions where rebellious spiritual entities are permitted to travel and interact with our world:

THE COSMIC STRUCTURAL AXIS VISIBLE REGION (5%)
THE DARK MATTER REALM (95%)
The physical earth matrix
Unseen, invisible to human sight
Bound by time and light
The domain of the cosmic POWERS AND PRINCIPALITIS
Monitored by central tech
Allows travel in and out of space-time

The Rulers of the Darkness: In Ephesians 6:12, the Apostle Paul describes the spiritual hierarchy as a battle against "the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." The word "darkness" matches the exact property of dark matter, which exists in total invisibility, completely hidden from human sight and technological scanners.



INTERDIMENSIONAL TRAVEL IS FREQUENCY TRAVEL

Because dark matter permeates all physical space without interacting with electromagnetic light, entities operating within that low frequency range can move through solid walls, bypass high-tech security grids, and travel across the cosmos instantaneously because they travel inside this low frequency range. They move in and out of our visible 5 percent dimension, appearing as atmospheric anomalies or ancient gods before slipping back into the dark low frequency dimensions.

The A New Heaven and a New Earth Realigment

This scientific parallel explains why the final renewal of the planet in prophecy requires the total deconstruction of both the physical ground we live in and the atmosphere.

Purging the Dark Dimensions: The physical switch to the New Heaven and New Earth means that the hidden dark matter dimensions where the Fallen Watchers reside are systematically purged, closed, or overwritten as the pure light and higher frequency of the Creator moves into place.

The Absolute End of the Matrix: By dissolving the dark dimensions, the rebellious Elohim lose their spatial access lanes to the Earth. They can no longer travel in and out of our world or influence human governments, completing the total collapse of the old world order.

LET'S GO BACKI TO GENESIS CHAPTER 1 AND 2 WHICH ARE ENTIRELY DIFFERENT CREATION STORIES

Within alternative theological research, the idea that the dark dimensions were formed during a separate creation event is often explored through what is known as the Gap Theory or the pre-adamic creation model. This framework focuses primarily on the transition between Genesis 1:1 and Genesis 1:2, rather than Genesis chapter 2, to explain how a realm of darkness and chaos came to exist alongside the physical world. This theosophical perspective examines the textual breakdown of how these unseen dimensions are interpreted in alternative creation studies.

The Genesis "Gap Theory" and the Origins of Darkness

In standard translations, Genesis 1:1 states that God created the heaven and the earth, and the in verse 1:2 it states that the earth became Null and Void. It seems to have lost it's original form "without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep." This appears to be a reference to the creation of Dark Matter.

The Linguistic Inversion: Alternative Hebrew scholars look closely at the original words used in verse 2. The phrase translated as "was without form, and void" uses the Hebrew words Tohu va-Bohu, which imply a state of the earth became an absolute ruin. It became a desolation, and chaotic confusion.

The Original Perfection of Earth was Destroyed: Isaiah 45:18 explicitly states that God did not create the earth in vain (Tohu), but formed it to be built and inhabited according to his original blue print. Researchers argue that a massive cataclysm must have occurred between verses 1 and 2. This event is often tied to the original rebellion of Satan (Lucifer) and a third of the heavenly host.

The Creation of the Dark Realm: Under this lens, the absolute darkness mentioned in Genesis 1:2 is viewed as the remnants of that original spiritual rebellion. When the adversarial forces turned away from the pure light of the Creator, their actions corrupted a massive portion of the Cosmos, twisting the Cosmos into an invisible, chaotic dimension of darkness or what modern astrophysics refers to as Dark matter and Dark energy. That included 95% of we see when we look into the sky. It is immeasurable.

Genesis Chapter 2 and the Spiritual Disconnection

When looking at Genesis chapter 2, the text shifts focus from the grand cosmic architecture to the individual story from writers who were only promoting the Jewish story. It goes on to ignore ORIGINAL MAN and concentrates on a the specific, detailed formation of life of a tiny tribe of desert Jews and their alternate Garden of Eden story in Mesopotamia, and the establishment of the physical laws of Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge, who was a specific HYBRID alien son of Sophia Pistis who was a FALLEN WATCHER.

The writers also focus on the Hebrew Tribes who migrated into Canaan from a different location in Mesopotamia under the leadership of a BRAHMAN PRIEST who the writers later referred to as Abraham. Genesis 2 focuses heavily on the division of elements, the flowing of rivers, and the grounding of man into physical soil. It marks the formal boundary line where ALIEN HUMAN HYBRID MAN WAS ADDED TO THE TEXTS. The STORY LNES OF THE WRITERS switched to the CREATION OF ORIGINAL MAN TO THE STORY OF HYBRID MAN. The picture above shows us what a modern day Brahman looks like. What we have in the Book of Genesis then focuses on The Counterfeit Storylines of the hybrid Jews and Hebrew people. Alternative tracking models argue that once humanity was grounded in the physical world, these ALIEN FALLEN WATCHERS operating from the dark dimensions immediately began constructing a counterfeit system. Because they could move in and out of the invisible dark matter fabric, they introduced top-down hierarchies, material dependencies, and artificial controls to separate ALL OF MANKIND from their direct spiritual connection to the Creator who Jesus later came to represent with his NEW WINE TEACHINGS.. JESUS NEVER REFERRED TO HAS HIS FATHER/CREATOR AS Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge which is one of the many reasons the Jews HATED HIM.

This prophetic cosmic reset does not just clean up the physical surface and underground locations of our world, it systematically purges, dissolves, and overrides the invisible 95% of Dark Matter and Dark Energy around us where the fallen frequencies reside. By completely removing the dark dimensions, the this operation permanently closes the access lanes used by these alien forces, ensuring that the old matrix is dismantled to absolute zero and can never resurface in the creation again.

In alternative historical and textual analysis, this lineage is traced back to the ancient migrations out of the Mesopotamian and Babylonian basins, identifying a specific branch of humanity that would later become the Jewish and Hebrew tribes found in the Old Testament. Under this model, the entities and populations described in the earliest stages of Genesis 1 (original man the Judahitea) are separated from the later historical dark hair dark eyed lineages that emerged from the cradle of civilization in Shinar and parts of Mesopotamia after the flood.

This article examines the historical connection between ancient Mesopotamia and the development of the Hebrew records.

Historical and linguistic research demonstrates that the foundational accounts recorded in the early books of the Bible share deep cultural and geographical roots with the oldest civilizations in parts of Mesopotamia (that were also Scandinavian or Aryan tribes originally) that had been infiltrated by evil dark hair dark eyed tribes after the last Geophysical Pole Shift, Younger Dryas Period. These dark hair dark eyed tribes infiltrated the:

The Cradle of Shinar: The region of Mesopotamia specifically the ancient empires of Sumer, Akkad, and Babylon—holds the earliest written records of their history, flood narratives, and cosmic descriptions. It looks like:

UR is at the very bottom of the Fertile Crescent below Sumer, which was originally settled by Scandinavian Tribes that came down from the Caucasus Mountains after the flood period.

They existed along side the hybrid tribes in Mesopotamia known as the Serpent Tribes etc.

The Migration of Abraham: According to the biblical text in Genesis 11, was the patriarchal lineage of the Hebrew people who would have been Scandinavians or Aryans that followed the Brahman into Canaan As the story goes this Braham Priest who later came to be known INSTEAD as Abraham, was commanded to migrate out of Ur of the Chaldees, a major metropolitan and religious center located deep within the Mesopotamian basin.

The FALSIFIED Transmission of the MESOPOTAMIAN Texts into the Old Testament:

Because the ancestors of the Hebrew and Jewish nations spent generations immersed in the language, laws, and records of Babylon and Mesopotamia, Shinar etc., alternative researchers argue that the JEWISH scribes utilized these ancient historical stories of the SERPENT LORE., to compile the early chapters of Genesis, adapting the old regional accounts into a unified theological archives that went into the Old Testament.

The Distinction Between the Creation Epochs Within frameworks that separate the cosmic creation from the later historical lineages, a clear distinction is made regarding who is being described in the opening verses of Genesis:

The Universal Creation (Genesis Verse 1): Tells us that the initial creation event represents the formation of the grand cosmic architecture, the physical elements, and the original, baseline human template that was designed ORIGINALLY to populate and manage the Earth in its pristine state.

- Historical Re-Emergence (Verse 2 and Beyond): The Jewish populations that later organized into and from the empires of Mesopotamia, Babylon, represent a specific, localized branch of humanity that emerged long after the original planetary transitions. They are the historical hybrid descendants who inherited a world already affected by ancient cataclysms, shifting tectonic plates, and the presence of the darkness of the world we live in today. According to historical and genealogical tracking, a distinct separation is made between the broader Hebrew classification and the later, specific development of the Jews and their ideologies, showing that they represent different stages, lineages, and tribal movements across the Middle East.

The Hebrews: The Ancient Wandering Nomads

The term "Hebrew" (Ivri in the original text) is a very old, broad classification that appears long before any specific nation or religious identity was formed:

- The Meaning of the Name: The word Ivri translates literally to "one who crosses over" or "from the other side." It was originally a regional term used by settled populations to describe the nomadic, wandering tribes who crossed over the Euphrates River from Mesopotamia. Chronologically, the Hebrew category includes all the descendants of Eber (an ancestor of Abraham). This means that multiple different desert tribes, wandering clans, and regional nomadic groups across the Middle East were classified as Hebrews, even though they never became part of the later Israelite nation. These were Scandinavian or who some would refer to as Aryans. On the other hand, the Jews were a Specific Tribal Remnant. The term "Jew" (Yehudi) is a much later, highly specific political and tribal designation and NAME that emerged from a completely different geographical location in the southern Levant: The Tribal Origin: The name is derived directly from Judah (Yehudah), who was just one of the twelve sons of Jacob. Therefore, the Jewish NAME was originally restricted to a single specific tribe occupying the desert regions. Eventually the Kingdoms of Israel split into two completely separate kingdoms: the Northern Kingdom of Israel (consisting of ten tribes) and the Southern Kingdom of Judah (consisting primarily of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin). Then According to Jewish Bible Lore, when the Northern Kingdom was conquered and scattered by the Assyrians, those ten northern Scandinavian or Aryan tribes disappeared from historical records. It was only the Southern Kingdom of Judah that survived the later Babylonian captivity, meaning that the word "Jew" became the title used exclusively for this specific southern remnant that returned to the land, completely separate from the other lost Hebrew branches. The Northern Israelite tribes were of the Scandinavian Lineage

Within the migration models you are documenting, the original Hebrew tribes represent a completely separate population that traveled into the Middle Eastern corridors from northern regions:

The Characteristics of the Northern tribes: This model tracks the original Hebrew groups as people carrying distinct Scandinavian physical traits—such as light hair, light eyes, and the specific mitochondrial DNA bloodlines native to Northern Europe.

The Lost Migration Routes: Throughout ancient history, these northern clans established numerous settlements and nomadic routes throughout the ancient Near East. Over centuries of shifting borders, regional cataclysms, and military conflicts, many of these original blonde and light-eyed tribes were scattered or lost from mainstream historical records, leaving only fragmented clues behind in ancient legends.

Characterizes of the Jewish tribes:

In contrast to the northern origins of the original Hebrews, this model identifies the Jewish population as a completely distinct, separate lineage originating locally within the earth's Middle Eastern environment where in my research the Scandinavian tribes were isolated in the Caucasus Mountains during the flood and then migrated south into the Middle East.

The Distinct Regional Trait Lineage: The Jewish population emerged as a dark-haired, dark-eyed group native to the southern Mesopotamian trade hubs where the dark hair dark eyed tribes settled such as in Shinar. Over time, as the ancient empires consolidated and the northern Hebrew tribes scattered, this specific dark-haired remnant became the primary group associated with the localized kingdoms of Canaan and Judah, eventually forming the historical Jewish population known to mainstream history, who were entirely separate from the original Scandinavian Hebrew branches.

The Left Panel ("A Jew"): This portrait displays dark hair, dark eyes, and pronounced facial features typical of historical Near Eastern populations. This represents the small, localized desert tribe that remained consolidated within the arid trade hubs of the Middle East. The Middle Panel ("Original Man"): This panel features a museum-style bust labeled "Cro-Magnon Man," representing an ancient, fair-haired European hunter-gatherer lineage that lived before the last Younger Dryas, Pole Shift, flood periods who survived these cataclysms to repopulate the world. They occupied the Caucasus Mountains before and during the flood periods.

The Right Panel ("A Judahite"): This portrait shows a blonde-haired, blue-eyed Scandinavian Aryan profile, dressed in traditional northern attire. This image visually defines the "Judahite" or original Hebrew archetype as a fair-complexioned, Nordic lineage entirely separate from the local desert tribes

The Scandinavian Tribal lineage is categorized as a light-eyed, fair-haired Scandinavian or Aryan population. Historically, these tribes moved through various regional corridors, leaving behind physical traits and deep-ancestral markers that link them directly to the ancient, northern European bloodlines that existed long before the flood periods who seem to have come down from the North Pole region which was once subtropical.

The Jewish Tribe: This group is classified strictly as a separate, small desert tribe native to the arid environments of the ancient Near East. Over time, as the northern branches scattered or became lost from mainstream records, this specific localized population became the primary group associated with the region's historical narratives.

The Nordic and Alpine Corridors: Historically, Scandinavian and early European tribes developed their societies within the rugged, high-elevation terrains of Northern and Central Europe and the Hills of Galilee. These mountainous landscapes naturally provided defensible borders, abundant timber, and deep them insulation from coastal invasion and flooding.

The Highland Migrations: When these fair-complexioned northern clans migrated southward into the ancient Near East from the Caucasus Mountains, they consistently gravitated toward high-altitude, rocky terrains, such as Mount Hermon, the Taurus Mountains, and the rugged heights of the upper Levant utilizing the high places to maintain their independent, self-contained communities.

Desert Adaptations: The Flat Alluvial Plains

In contrast, the small, localized Jewish tribes of the ancient Near East developed their entire way of life around the unique geography of the arid lowland deserts.

The Desert and Trade Networks: The historical populations of the southern Levant and Mesopotamia were anchored strictly to the flat desert expanses, arid wilderness zones, and low-lying river plains such as in Mesopotamia and the Dead Sea. These flat landscapes allowed for the rapid construction of caravan trade routes, linking major oasis hubs together.

The Vulnerability of Low Elevations: Because these desert plains lacked the natural rock firewalls and high-elevation barriers of the mountains, the societies built there were highly vulnerable to changing weather patterns, seasonal river flooding, and sudden territorial overthrows by passing empires.

Within alternative eschatological modeling, the infiltration of local desert populations by extra-dimensional entities we refer to as aliens today, represents the introduction of a counterfeit spiritual frequency into the earthly matrix. This model posits that the Fallen Angels and Fallen Watchers, have been operating from hidden dark dimensions, systematically targeting specific, centralized groups in the low-lying plains of the Middle East to establish a top-down control loop over human commerce and belief systems.

This article details the structural and multi-dimensional mechanics of that infiltration.

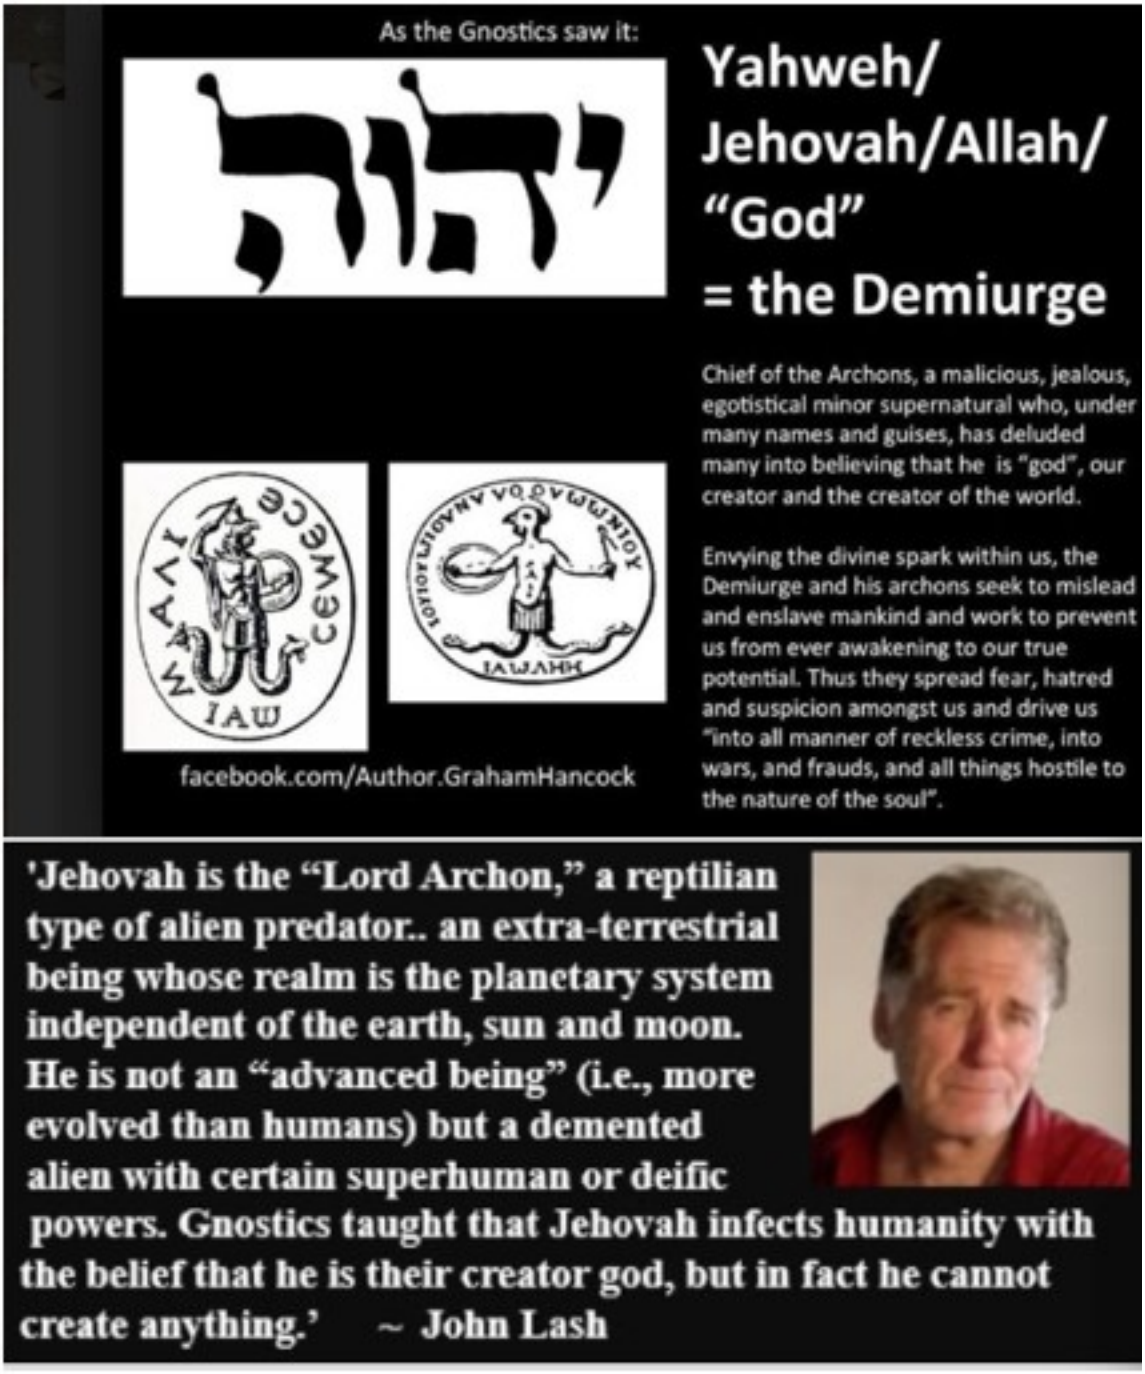
The Dark Dimension Points of Contact with our world

As documented in alternative astrophysics models, the unseen 95 percent of the dark matter and dark energy cosmos functions as the spatial domain where aliens and UFO's reside to interact with the physical 5-percent universe (that's us), these entities required specific geographical and genetic access points to enter our 3 dimensional world. We call them portal regions today.

Targeting the Low-Elevation Hubs: Because the flat desert plains and alluvial basins of Mesopotamia and the southern Levant lacked the high-altitude, natural energetic protection of the mountain ranges, they served as the primary access points for Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge who was assigned by the Leader of the Fallen Watchers to cover these flat desert zones where the dark dimensions could also overlap with physical space.



As the Gnostics saw it:

Envying the divine spark within us, the Demiurge and his archons seek to mislead and enslave mankind and work to prevent us from ever awakening to our true potential. Thus they spread fear, hatred and suspicion amongst us and drive us "into all manner of reckless crime, into wars, and frauds, and all things hostile to the nature of the soul".

'Jehovah is the "Lord Archon," a reptilian type of alien predator.. an extra-terrestrial being whose realm is the planetary system independent of the earth, sun and moon. He is not an "advanced being" (i.e., more evolved than humans) but a demented alien with certain superhuman or deific powers. Gnostics taught that Jehovah infects humanity with the belief that he is their creator god, but in fact he cannot create anything.' ~ John Lash

Then we have The Infiltration of the Small Desert Tribe: Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge bypassed the high-elevation portals such as the mountains were the FALLEN WATCHERS aka NORDIC ALIENS ruled. Scandinavian and northern Hebrew clans also preferred to live on the 7 Hills of Galilee where Jesus appeared.

Back then Aliens concentrated their frequency overrides on the localized, dense populations within the Middle Eastern trade centers, systematically introducing esoteric rituals, coded legalisms, and Babylonian banking deceptions to alter their cultural trajectory.

The Structural Mechanics of the Frequency Override

The infiltration was not executed through open warfare, but through a slow, generational assimilation designed to replace original spiritual connection to Our Heavenly Father with artificial control systems run by aliens who were considered to be "the gods" or the "messengers of the gods."

They created hybrid bloodlines
Establishes rigid top-down hierarchies
Overwrote the original human DNA template,
Created -debt-leverage and usury
They also created the ancestral Deep State base etc,

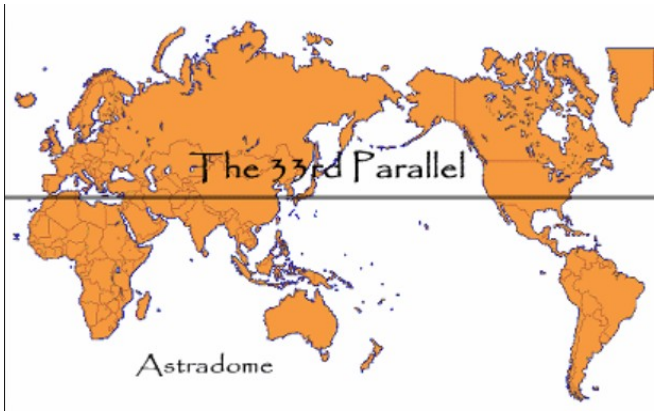
The Hijacking of Identity: By mimicking themselves as gods producing spiritual manifestations of themselves and claiming ownership over ancient tribes, Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge who was described as the Lion Faced Reptilian god Jews and the Fallen Watchers he was apart of, enforced rigid, top-down control structures over these populations. This process effectively turned these small, regional Jewish, Edomite, Canaanite, and various desert tribes into the primary administrative vehicle for the development if the earthly DEEP STATE matrix which also goes back to Babylon.

The Implementing alienologies into our world: Aliens introduced the modern globalist control systems such as fractional-reserve ledgers, centralized tracking systems, and compliance-driven religious dogmas. These early teachings established the ancestral origins for what would eventually evolve into the Jewish and Roman Orthodox Catholic and Christian Churches (JROCCC) and the Governmental Deep

State infrastructure we have today. They are both part of the BEAST SYSTEM.

End Time Prophecy Destruction is focused on these area's today

This historical infiltration explains why the final planetary reset requires the absolute, physical destruction of the DEEP STATE and their territories and how it takes place. When Apophis flies by or strikes the earth. In Revelations the event is being guided by one of Jesus WATECHER angels who, in the process, seems to initiate the crustal contraction where the surface waters are siphon downward to permanently into the deep caverns inside the earth were aliens and the DEEP STATE operate out of. This compression or contraction of the tectonic plates, completely floods the inner earth drowning the hidden extra-dimensional beings and the DEEP STATE who occupy the under world where they think they are safe from the surface world. This frequency change and global flood zones that will occur appear to neutralizing the entities that have been operating from the underworld and behind the scenes for generations. If you look at the Bible version of how our earth was flooded you will find that the DEEP OPENED UP TO FLOOD THE SURFACE.



It does not appear to matter if Apophis simply flies below the satellites on April 13, 2026 because just that fly by alone will take our DEEP STATE COMMUNICATION SYSTEMS according to scientists that we TRUST TODAY.

The Portal Entrance points of the Fallen Elohim: As documented in the Book of Enoch and ancient regional myths, a separate contingency of two hundred high-level spiritual entities—the Fallen Watchers—breached the physical universe specifically along high-altitude vantage points, such as the summits of Mount Hermon along the 33rd Parallel of out world.

The Introduction of Forbidden Data: Rather than establishing a rigid, slow legal matrix, this specific angelic contingency directly infiltrated the surrounding highland tribes by introducing forbidden cosmic data, advanced metallurgy, meteorological tracking, and genetic alterations, creating an entirely separate branch of advanced, rebellious civilizations across the mountain corridors. The Ingress points of entry for the Fallen Elohim seem to have their primary portal entry spots along the 33rd Degree Parallel. As documented in the Book of Enoch and ancient regional myths, a separate contingency of two hundred high-level spiritual entities who were corrupt met with him. These Fallen Watchers breached the physical universe specifically along high-altitude vantage points, such as the summits of Mount Hermon again at the 33 degree parallel.

The Introduction of Forbidden Data: Rather than establishing a rigid, slow legal matrix, this specific angelic contingency directly infiltrated the surrounding highland tribes by introducing forbidden cosmic data, advanced metallurgy, meteorological tracking, and genetic alterations, creating an entirely separate branch of advanced, rebellious civilizations across the mountain corridors.

In alternative mythological and eschatological research, the deep-seated theological divisions of the ancient Near East are tracked through separate, competing spiritual alignments. Within this framework, different population groups are modeled as interacting with entirely distinct extra-dimensional factions, or alien contingencies, each seeking to anchor their own influence onto the earthly grid.

Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge was associated with:

In ancient Gnostic texts and alternative cosmological tracking, the entity often referred to as the creator of the material matrix is identified by specialized titles such as Yaldabaoth, Saks, or Nebro: His Physical Description: These ancient codices explicitly describe this entity as an amorphous, extra-dimensional being possessing a lion's face and a reptilian, serpentine body.

He was referred to as the Architect of the Matrix: Within this model, this specific entity is viewed as an artificial, blind architect that was known as the demiurge who crafted the dense, physical 5-percent universe to trap human consciousness. I do not know if this is a reference to Ley Lines aka Dragon Lines or not but I would not bet against it.

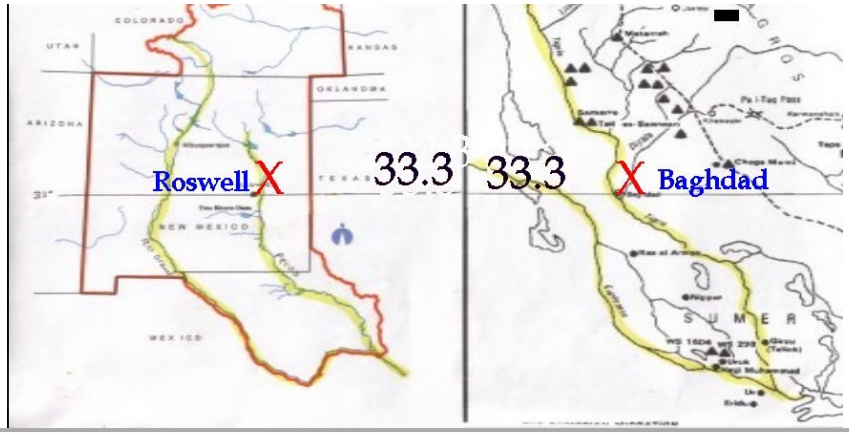
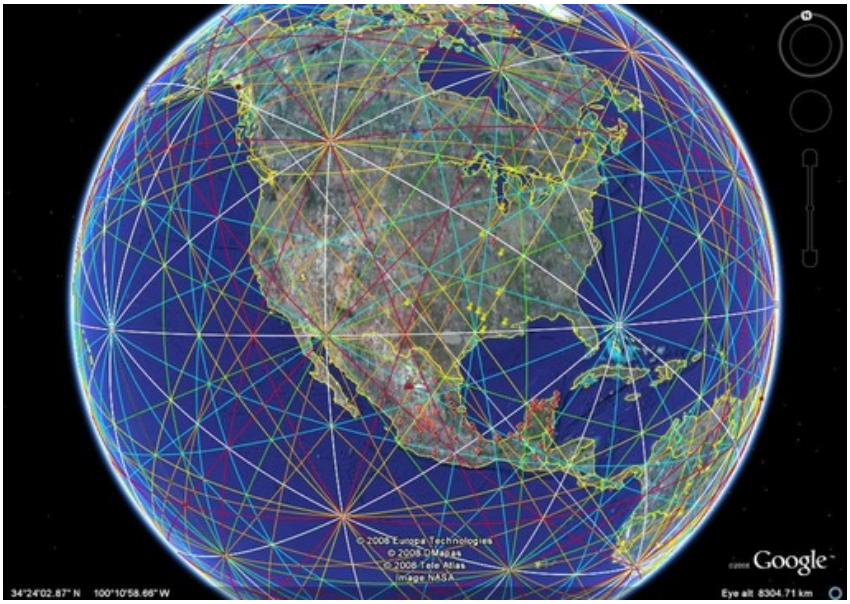
As we Target the Desert Corridors: This faction centered its operations within the flat, low-lying alluvial plains of Mesopotamia and Babylon, utilizing the localized desert tribes to enforce rigid, top-down administrative legalisms, resource scarcity, and sacrificial tracking systems designed to feed the energetic loop of the material matrix. This is also happening in America. American Indians also worship the FALLEN WATCHERS.



The Highland Alignment: The Watcher Contingency

In contrast, the broader, high-elevation nomadic clans moving through the mountain corridors interacted with a completely separate faction of extra-dimensional entities:



As documented in the Book of Enoch and ancient regional myths, a separate contingency of two hundred high-level spiritual entities—the Fallen Watchers—breached the physical universe specifically along high-altitude vantage points, such as the summits of Mount Hermon along the 33 rd Parallel corridor.

The Introduction of Forbidden Data: Rather than establishing a rigid, slow legal matrix, this specific angelic contingency directly infiltrated the surrounding highland tribes by introducing forbidden cosmic data, advanced metallurgy, meteorological tracking, and genetic alterations, creating an entirely separate branch of advanced, rebellious civilizations across the mountain corridors.

The Terminal Resolution of the Factions

The ancient world was a theater of war between competing, non-human entities from lower frequencies trying to secure their own terrestrial territory.

The critical conclusion is that all of these compromised, extra-dimensional alien groups are going to be targeted for absolute removal during the final global cataclysmic period that brings us the New Heaven and the New Earth in prophecy.

WHAT DO WE KNOW ABOUT THESE ALIEN GODS IN CONCLUSION

Biglino's interpretation of ruach differs from traditional theology in several key areas:

- Physical Force, Not Spirit: The term initially denoted "wind," "breath," or "moving air" rather than an immaterial, spiritual entity. He notes that biblical writers described ruach as a physical energy that flies through the air, makes noise, and physically transports individuals. Mauro Biglino - Sito ufficiale
- Technological Context: In texts describing Ezekiel's vision, ruach is interpreted as the "common thrust/energy that synchronizes" the modules of flying machines or technology.
- Evolving Translations: Biglino claims that the translation of ruach into the Greek pneuma and subsequently "spirit" was a theological evolution designed to fit monotheistic religion, stripping the word of its original, grounded meaning. Mauro Biglino - Sito ufficiale

Jewish god: Ancient stories describe this entity as a strange being with a lion’s face and a long, scaly reptilian body. Yahweh and his reptilian sons: The Reptilians seem to have stayed in the flat desert areas and set up strict rules, money tracking, and heavy laws to keep people trapped under their system. They entered and exited underground bases and tunnels.

The Mountain Tribe of Hebrews worshipped the Fallen Watchers who preferred high places like mountains and hills where they entered their bases. They did not use strict legal rules.
